GT Bay Gymnasts Close Out Regular Season With Clover Classic Wins

(Ypsilanti, MI) – Grand Traverse Bay Gymnastics teams closed out their regular season with a Level 7 team championships at the Eastern Michigan University “Clover Classic” this weekend, collecting 18 individual gold medals along the way.

“We finished the regular season with one of our best meets all season, in just the position we wanted to be for the upcoming state meets,” commented coach Jennifer Van Deirse. In addition to the Level 7 team championship, the Level 3 and Level 6 teams finished second.

Maya Carrazco turned in her best performance all season, leading all competitors with an all-around score of 37.500. Carrazco won first-place championship gold medals on all four events – vault, bars, beam, and floor to compete the rare gold-medal all-around sweep.

Other individual champions and their top event results included Sophia Tucker (first place bars, beam, floor and all-around), Adeline Carlson (first place floor and all-around), Maeve Carlson (first place beam), Kianna LeBreck (first place vault), Jayla Ristow (second place bars, beam, floor and all-around), Montana Timmer (first place floor and all-around), Skylar Hawkins (first place beam), Izzy Brooks (second place vault), Ava Hodges (first place floor), Avery Lahti (first place floor), and Kelsey Saxton (second place bars).

Level 7 – 10 State Meets will be held March 16 – 18 in Grand Rapids, followed by Level 4 – 6 State Meets April 6 - 7.
